PREFACE

On a recent visit to Cimarron, New Mexico, I found a Hotel Register for the St. James Hotel that had never been copied and in my desire to obtain a copy of it before something should happen to the original, I made a trip back to Cimarron. While there I discovered some account ledgers and also had them duplicated. Mr. Edward Sitzberger had the only copy machine in town and he agreed to do the record duplication. While Mr. Sitzberger was obtaining the ledgers and the Register, he also found a history of the Methodist Episcopal Church, starting in 1867 with its formation from the Colorado headquarters. He stated that this was a document that had never before been copied and the curator at the Old Mill Museum was pleased to have it done.

Thus I came into possession of probably the only copy ever made of this register and present it herewith. I have attempted to set forth the names as accurately as possible in the index, but I trust that the user will realize that the writing is sometimes difficult to make out. Be sure to check alternative spellings of names. I kept to the original spellings as they appear in the Register rather than modern "accepted" spellings. There are cross references where it appeared to be the same family but with a variety of spellings.

I have set forth a brief synopsis of the church history followed by the original document. After the presentation of the original document itself, I have transcribed the history in full for those who may have difficulty in reading the fine, small writing of the original. That is followed by the index. We hope these pages will help researchers discover long sought ancestors and relatives. We were delighted to be able to assist two researchers even before publication.

Many thanks Mr. Edward Sitzberger of Cimarron, New Mexico, for his work in duplicating the original records; it turned out to be an extremely difficult job with the very fragile original documents and consumed many hours of his time. And many thanks to the Old Mill Museum for preserving and making available these priceless historic documents.

SYNOPSIS OF RECORDED HISTORY

In 1867 Rev. J. L. Dyer came from Colorado to New Mexico and headquartered at Elizabeth Town. He was a member of the Colorado Methodist Episcopal Conference. He built a little board shanty and lived in one end and kept his horse in the other.

In 1868 he organized a society of six persons, but soon nearly all moved away. He bought lumber to build a church, but during his trips preaching, the lumber was stolen. The congregation grew. The work was then designated as the Santa Fe District of the Colorado Conference, and the headquarters was moved to Santa Fe.

In the fall of 1869, Thomas Harwood was transferred from the West Wisconsin Conference and made La Junta his headquarters.¹ Bro. Harwood organized a class of six probationers and nine members. A church building was built and dedicated July 3, 1870. In the latter part of 1870 Mr. Harwood was in charge of the work in the entire territory.

In 1871, N. S. Buckner was appointed to Elizabeth Town. In October of 1871, the church was expanded and organized in Peralta. There were forty-three names altogether.

In 1872, at the General Conference in Brooklyn, New York, a petition was presented to set off New Mexico from the Colorado Conference. The petition was granted and Rev. Harwood, who had been acting superintendent for three years, was appointed.

In the fall of 1872, Rev. John Steele of the West Wisconsin Conference, was appointed missionary to New Mexico and stationed at Peralta.

In the fall of 1873 the superintendent visited the entire work in the territory, consisting of all the occupied and much of the unoccupied portion, consisting of Las Vegas, Santa Fe, Ft. Stanton, Las Cruces, Mesilla, Silver City, El Paso City, Texas, El Paso in the Mexican zone, Dona Ana, Ft. Seldon, Palomas, Ft. McRae, Ft. Craig, Ft. Cummons, Ft. Bayard, Paraje, Socorro, and Peralta. About this time Rev. M. Matthison, of the West Wisconsin Conference, was sent to Socorro.

In January, 1874, Rev. F. J. Tolby of the Northwest Indiana Conference was sent to the Cimarron circuit. He was assassinated September 14, 1875, near Elizabeth Town.

In the spring of 1874, Rev. P. D. McElroy, of the Presbyterian Church, was employed at Mora, but he had to discontinue his service.

In 1875, Rev. O. P. McMains was appointed to Cimarron and Elizabeth Town in place of Rev. F. J. Tolby. He was soon discontinued.

In the fall of 1874, Rev. J. H. Roberts was appointed to the Mexican work, was married and appointed to work at Las Cruces. In 1875, Benito Garcia was in charge of work at Circuelita² and Ambrosio Gonzales was appointed at Peralta. Rev. Juan Garcia was licensed to preach in 1874, and appointed to Manzano. Bro. Blas Gutierrez was licensed to preach in 1875, and in charge of the work at Valverde. Marcus Barela was employed as a missionary helper and licensed to preach in 1875 and worked in Santa Fe.

The oldest mission was at Elizabeth Town. The second oldest was La Junta. Peralta was founded in 1871. This could be called the oldest, rightfully, because it was founded by Fr. Dallas Love in 1853. Circuelita was founded in 1872, Socorro in 1873, Las Cruces and Mesilla in 1875, Silver City in 1876, Las Vegas and Santa Fe in 1880.

1857 & 1858⁹Rev. J. L. Dyer
Preacher

In the year 1857⁹ Rev. J. L. Dyer came from Colorado into St. Mexico and made his head quarters at Elizabeth Town. He was a member of the Colorado Conference. He traveled a great deal and preached almost everywhere often to a single family. He was a man of great and ready wit, a good preacher and generally took well with the miners and frontier men. As many of the miners were from Col. where they had made his acquaintance, he felt quite at home with them.

There were, at this time, but few American families and there were generally poorly prepared to accommodate with lodging. So Rev. Dyer put up a little board shanty. He lived in one end of the shanty, had his bed room, parlor, kitchen study in one room and kept his horse in the other end. In the year 1858 he organized a little society of about 6, but nearly all soon moved away.

He organized a school also which is still kept up. He made an effort to build a church bought lumber and had several loads brought to the place selected for the church building.

They really had commenced the building, but during a few days absence of the preacher much of the lumber was stolen, and the work was given up. Rev. Dyer was returned at the next annual Conf. as P. & of this work which was then called Santa Fe Dist. of the Col. Conf. and made his head quarters at Santa Fe.

In the fall of said year 1859 Thos. Harwood was transferred from the West. Vis. Conf. and came to St. Mexico and made La Junta his head quarters. He took charge of La Junta Elizabeth Town, Cimarron, Red River & Union.

W. A. Dole, an ex-Methodist preacher was for some time at this time. Rev. Dyer remained in 1858 & 1859 about 10,000 miles.

1858 & 1860

1860 & 1870

Thos. Harwood

Bro. Harwood visited Elizabeth &c about once a month. He held a series of meetings in the spring of 1870, and organized a class of about 6 probationers & members (see Rec.). The S. I. was also reorganized. At a Public Lyceum held at E. Town the question of man's immortality was discussed. Mr. Mills a young Lawyer and Mr. Crawford both promising young men affirmed the immortality of the soul; while Judge Swift and Wheelock denied they were confirmed skeptics. Their bold denial of the Orthodox views of Christianity produced much feeling and excitement. The Preacher was almost unanimously requested to preach on the subject the next evening, which he did with apparent satisfaction to the largest audience probably ever assembled in one place in the town.

The meeting was held in the old, enlarged and fitted up, house that Bro. Dyer had formerly occupied for himself and horse. The next day the leading men of the place suggested the idea of a church building. A meeting was called, trustees appointed or nominated rather, and a building Committee appointed. A few days were spent in circulating subscription, which with a promise of $300. w. from the Church Extension Soc. and amounting in all to about $1500. w. The building was erected, and dedicated on the Sabbath of July 3rd. 1870. It was a neat little building 24x56x14 on lots 2 & 3 of Block 39. The whole Block was donated.

The Church was weak. Some of the members withdrew. The Class Leader got out of humor and left the Church. Some of the subscribers became angry without cause and refused to pay. But the more steady friends of the Enterprise boldly stood in our favor, until all was completed. The names of which only a few can be given. A. H. Hollenback, R. M. Foster, Wm. Southerland, Chas. Deane. Mr. Hollenback was collector and did his work well. He tells many amusing anecdotes of his experience as collector. It was a rough time shooting and killing was very common.

1870 & 1871

In the latter part of the year 1870 Mr. Harwood was still in charge of the work in the entire Territory.

1871 & 1872

C. S. Buckner

In the year 1871 the Conf was held in Denver. Bishop James presided. At that Conf. Rev. St. S. Buckner was appointed to Elizabethtown. He served the church at that place until the next Conf. Rev. Mr. Harwood succeeded in awaking a little interest in behalf of the Spanish work and $400.00 was secured from the Conf funds to try the experiment of employing a helper or two of the same. In Oct. of that year Mr. Harwood went down to Peralta, organized a few Protestants of that place into a Class. There were 43 names altogether. Ambrosia Gonzales was the principle one. He had kept the people together (Protestants) since 1855 when Dr. Dallas Love who had just returned from South America, visited there and organized a class and appointed Bro. Ambrosia leader.

I read a Spanish sermon and reorganized the class, and recognized Bro. Ambrosia a helper and arranged to pay him something for his services.

I had a pleasant visit. Was accompanied by Bro. Benito Garcia. We reached Peralta at about 9 o'clock at night. 1871. Bro. Father Gonzales, father to Ambrosia, hearing a Protestant Minister had come, pumped out of bed like a boy ran and hugged me.

At the General Conference of 1872 held in Brooklyn, we petitioned for St. Mex. to be set off from the Colorado Conf. and to be provided for by the Missionary Board. The petition was granted and we were set off and Rev. Thos. Harwood, who had acted as Superintendent for 3 years previous was duly appointed by Bishop Simpson. At first he was alone after,

Marcos Navila was employed in the Missionary work as a helper in the year 1875 and was also licensed to preach in 1875 and ordained by Bishop Simpson at Santa Fe Nov. 1878.

Elizabethtown

1867- This is really the oldest Mission proper in the Terr. It was organized in 1867 under Rev. S. L. Dyer.

The Church building at that place is the oldest M. E. Church in the Terr. built in the year 1870 - Dedicated July 3 - 1870 by Rev. Thos. Harwood who was then in charge of that work. Elizabethtown was then in La Junta Circuit. The following are the preachers of S. L. Dyer, Thos. Harwood, N. H. Pickner, J. A. Kelly, O. F. McNamee.

Cameron Jennings, Red River &c were included in the above work.

La Junta

1869- This was the 2nd Mission proper. The Church and school building was put up in the Spring of 1870 under the labors of Rev. Thos. Harwood and dedicated by him in the following Autumn. The school was founded in the winter of 1869 & 1870.

New Mexico Spanish Mission

The New Mexico Mission had embraced the English speaking of the entire Territory up to the fall of 1884. The Conference of 1884 had been petitioned to divide the work and send New Mission to embrace simply the Spanish speaking in New Mexico and those of the adjacent countries. The Gen. Conf. referred matter to the General Missionary Committee who made the decision to take effect the beginning of the year 1885. Rev. M. S. Tress of the Colorado Conference was appointed Supt of the English work and Rev. J. H. Harwood, Supt of the Spanish Mission. The work consisted of the following appointments:

1885

During this year, the work moved on very well: We built one church at Wagon Mound and dedicated it ^{little before} one at Cortitta and one at La Japa. We added to our membership and probationers a little over 100 persons.

1886

During this year we opened our work at San Pedro & in that upper section. Rev. Alexander Morchardt D.D. came to us from the Roman Catholic Church. He was elected to Diaconia & Elders Orders at the General Conference July 20-1.

HISTORY OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

1867⁸ & 1868⁹ Rev. J. L. Dyer, Preacher.

In the year 1867⁸, Rev J. L. Dyer came from Colorado into N. Mexico and made his Head Quarters at Elizabeth Town. He was a member of the Colorado Conference. He traveled a great deal and preached almost everywhere, often to a single family. He was a man of great and ready wit, a good preacher and generally took well with the miners and frontiersmen. As many of the miners were from Col. where they had made his acquaintance, he felt quite at home with them.

There were, at this time, but few American families and these were generally poorly prepared to accommodate with lodging. So Bro. Dyer put up a little board shanty. He lived in one end of the shanty, had his bedroom, parlor, kitchen, study in one room and kept his horse in the other end.

In the year 1868 he organized a little society of about six, but nearly all soon moved away. He organized a S.S. also, which is still kept up. He made an effort to build a church, bought lumber and had several loads brought to the place selected for the church building. They really had commenced the building, but during a few days absence of the preacher much of the lumber was stolen, and the work was given up. Bro. Dyer was returned at the next annual Conf. as P.E. of this work which was then called Santa Fe District of the Colorado Conf. and made his Head Quarters at Santa Fe.

1869 & 1870, Thos. Harwood.

In the fall of said year, 1869, Thos. Harwood was transferred from the West Wis. Conf. and came to N. Mexico, and made La Junta his Head Quarters. He took charge of La Junta, Elizabethtown, Cimarron, Red River, Ft. Union.

W. A. Pile, an ex-Methodist preacher, was Gov. of N. Mex. at this time. Bro. Dyer traveled in 1868 & 1869 about 10,000 miles.

1869 & 1870.

Bro. Harwood visited Elizabethe about once a month. He held a series of meetings in the spring of 1870, and organized a class of about 6 probationers & members (see Record). The S.S. class was also reorganized. At a public Lyceum held at E. Town the question of man's immortality was discussed. Mr. Mills, a young lawyer and Mr. Crawford, both promising young men, affirmed the immortality of the soul, while Judge Swift and Wheelock denied. They were confirmed skeptics. Their bold denials of the orthodox views of Christianity produced much feeling and excitement. The preacher was almost unanimously requested to preach on the subject the next evening. This he did, with apparent satisfaction to the largest audience probably ever assembled in one place in the town.

The meeting was held in the old, enlarged and fitted up, house that Bro. Dyer had formerly occupied for himself and horse. The next day the Leading men of the place suggested the idea of a Church building. A meeting was called, trustees appointed or nominated, rather, and a building committee appointed. A few days were spent in circulating subscription, which with a promise of $300.00 from the Church Extension Soc. and amounting in all to about $1500.00. The building was erected, and dedicated on the Sabbath of July 3rd, 1870. It was a neat little building 24x26x18 on lots 7 & 8 of Block 39. The whole Block was donated.

The church was weak. Some of the members worthless. The class leader got out of humor and left the church. Some of the subscribers became angry without cause and refused to pay. But the more steady friends of the enterprize boldly stood in our favor, until all was completed. The names of which only a few can be given. A. Hollenbeck, H. M. Porter, Thos. Loathain, Chas. Pease. Mr. Hollenbeck was collector and did his work well. He tells many amusing anecdotes of his experience as collector. It was a rough time. Shooting and killing was very common.

1870 & 1871.

In the latter part of the year, 1870, Mr. Harwood was still in charge of the work in the entire territory.

1871 & 1872. N. S. Buckner.

In the year 1871 the Conf. was held in Denver. Bishop James presided. At that Conf. Rev. N. S. Buckner was appointed to Elizabethtown. He served the church at that place until the next Conf. Rev. Mr. Harwood succeeded in awaking a little interest in behalf of the Spanish work and $400.00 was secured from the Conf. funds to try the experiment. In Oct of that year Mr. Harwood went down to Peralta, organized a few protestants of that place into a class. There were 43 names altogether. Ambrozia Gonzales was the principle one. He had kept the people together (protestants) since 1855 when Dr. Dallas Love who had just returned from South America, visited them and organized a class and appointed Bro. Ambrozia leader.

I read a Spanish sermon and reorganized the class, and recognized Bro. Ambrozia a helper and arranged to pay him something for his services. I had a pleasant visit. Was accompanied by Rev. Benito Garcia. We reached Peralta at about 9 o'clock at night. 1871. Old Father Gonzales, Father to Ambrozia, learning a protestant minister had come, jumped out of bed like a boy ran and hugged me.

At the General Conference of 1872 held in Brooklyn, we petitioned for N. Mex. to be set off from the Colorado Conf and to be provided for by the Missionary Board. The petition was granted and we were set of (sic) and Rev. Thos Harwood, who had acted as supintendent (sic) for 3 years previous was duly appointed by Bishop Simpson. At first he was alone, after, (sic)

1st Spanish sermon Rev Thos. Harwood Rev. John Steele

Rev. Thos. Harwood preached his first Spanish sermon in the spring of 1871 at Ciruelita (sic). It was read.

In the fall of 1872 Rev. John Steele of the West Wis. Conf. was appointed a missionary to N. Mex. and stationed at Peralta. He found a small class and Bro. Ambrozia Gonzales in charge.

Also in charge of the congregation - Bro. Steele and his excellent lady set to work in earnest and he was soon able to preach in the language of the people.

(In margin) Rev. M. Mattheison. 1873. The Supt went on this trip with his ponies and baggage. So the Indians were very bad and nearly always on the war path somewhere in the territory. He went in company with a freighter, an old neighbor, I. T. Chandler, who took his family down to Silver City. The family consisted of his wife, Georgia, Clarence, ____, Louise, & David. The oldest about 12 ____.

This was a very pleasant trip. In Oct we saw plenty (?) Indians but were not molested.

In the fall of 1873 the superintendent visited the entire work in the territory. That is all the occupied and much of the unoccupied portions, consisting of Las Vegas, Santa Fe, Ft. Stanton, Las Cruces, Mesilla, Silver City, El Paso City, Texas, El Paso in Old Mexico, Dona Ana, Ft. Selden, Palomas, Ft. McRae, Ft. Craig, Ft. Cummins, Ft. Bayard, Paraje, Socorro, Peralta. He organized the work at Palomas with some 12 Mexican probationers, San Marcial and Socorro. At about that time the fall of 1873, Rev. M. Mattheison of the West Wis. Conf. was sent to N. Mex. and stationed at Socorro.

1874 Rev. F. J. Tolby.

Jan 1st, 1874, Rev. T. J. Tolby of the North West Ind. Conf. was sent out to N. Mex. and appointed to the Cimarron Circuit. He was a noble preacher, for one of his age, but had a hard field. He was assassinated Sept 14, 1875 on his way from one of his appointments from Elizabethtown. He was shot at the foot of the large hill about 2 miles this side of Pascoe right at the bridge across the creek. See his obituary in scrap book No. VI, page 102-105.
